

- AD-5-10 Born in Tarsus as an Israelite from the tribe of Benjamin and a Roman citizen raised in either Jerusalem or Tarsus
- 15–20 At the age of 12 he trained as a Pharisee by Gamaliel I
- 31–34 Around 29 years old, he was present at Stephen's stoning; persecuted Christians.
- 33/34 Approx. 30 years old, he was converted, called, and commissioned on the way to Damascus.
- 36/37 Meets with Peter (and sees James) in Jerusalem.
- 44–47 Spends a year ministering with Barnabas in Antioch
- 46–47 At the age of approx. 45: First Missionary Journey
- 48–49 Returns to Jerusalem for the apostolic council (Acts 15); Paul and Barnabas return to Antioch.
- 48/49–51 Second Missionary Journey.
- 49 Paul and Silas travel to southern Galatia through Asia Minor, on to Macedonia
- 49–51* Spends 1.5 years in Corinth; appears before Gallio; writes 1 and 2 Thessalonians
- 52–57* Third Missionary Journey: 5 years.
- 52–55 Arrives in Ephesus; ministers there for three years and writes 1 Corinthians.
- 55–56 Travels north to Macedonia, where he meets Titus; writes 2 Corinthians
- 57 Writes letter to the Romans from Corinth; travels to Jerusalem and is arrested
- 57–59 Imprisonment transferred to Caesarea, where he stays for two years.
- 60 Voyage to Rome; shipwrecked for three months on the island of Malta; finally arrives in Rome
- 62 Under house-arrest in Rome (Acts 28:30–31), writes Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, Philemon
- 62–67 Released from house-arrest in Rome, extends his mission, writes 1 Timothy and Titus; is rearrested, writes 2 Timothy from Rome shortly before his execution
- 64–67 Martyred in Rome (Aged Approx. 60).